Product Description

DISCOUNTED PRICE!

Brand new item, but arrived with Manufacture Defect.

Defect: 2 out of 3 pieces that make bottom of the tray are not fully connected, which created an opening. Tray is still functional.

Opening is about 12" long (location is first compartment) and might not be as noticeable on the light brown background of kitchen drawer. Another mild defect is located a 1/3" wood elevation in the third compartment (bottom, left side close to the second compartment

(See Images).
